EU & EAEU DIPLOMATIC SCHOOL AT A GLANCE

Two days of the School were filled for the participants with an enriching experience of interaction while pursuing the final goal of creating together and signing the EU-EAEU Memorandum of Understanding

1: GETTING KNOWLEDGE THROUGH LECTURE

Speakers from Higher School of Economics, Sciences Po (Paris, France) and CEO of Schneider Group shared their expertise on the current and perspective cooperation between the EU and EAEU in the spheres of security, law and economic exchange.

Vasilisa Yakunina (Russia): «It is an exciting experience that should become a tradition»

Ruben Dieleman (Netherlands): «For the first time of my life, I could ask a real, meritorious diplomat what his practice and profession are like»

2: STUDYING DIPLOMACY AT ACADEMIE DIPLOMATIQUE INTERNATIONALE

Guided by the German ambassador Wilfried Bolewski, the participants plunged into discussions on modern diplomacy practices.

3: SIMULATION OF DIPLOMATIC NEGOTIATIONS

Representing one of the Unions, each participant was responsible for negotiations in one particular area of cooperation: Agriculture, Energy, Digital Market, etc. During the intense work reasonable compromises were found in every field thus resulting in a unanimous voting. Read the Memorandums at www.greater-europe.com
